Calvary Cemetery Memorial Day Mass

Ritual of Transference of Manitowoc Catholic Cemetery Properties

May 28, 2011

Statement from Bishop Ricken:

I am happy to announce today that after careful consultation and consideration, the Diocese of Green Bay will return Calvary Cemetery, St. Mary Cemetery and St. Peter Cemetery back to their rightful owners: the local Catholic Church of Manitowoc. This transference of cemetery properties will take effect on July 1st of this year.

Since 1984, the Diocese of Green Bay has managed and owned these cemetery properties. However, the heritage of these cemeteries rests with the ministry and mission of the Catholic Church in this area -- a parish and cemetery history that extends back to the 19th century.

I pray that these cemeteries will continue to be cared for in a manner that is worthy of their purpose: to provide Catholic cemeteries that bury the dead with a deep reverence for the body and spiritual support to the loved ones who remain.

In conclusion, I present to you this scroll of deeds. May God bring to fruition the good work that has begun in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, our promise of salvation.

Statement from Fr. Dan:

Bishop Ricken, the Catholic Community of Manitowoc will continue to care for these cemeteries in a manner that is worthy of their purpose. To that end, I have directed that a corporation be formed which will be known as Calvary Cemetery of Manitowoc, Inc. This cemetery corporation will work hand in hand with St. Francis of Assisi Parish to care for and manage all four of our Catholic Cemeteries (Calvary Cemetery, St. Peter Cemetery on S. 26th Street, St. Mary Cemetery across from Felician Village and Old St. Mary Cemetery off of Rapids Road).

It is so important that we bury those who have died in a manner that is holy and respectful. As a parish community, we embrace the challenge of managing these four cemeteries as part of our Godly mission to bury the dead as we walk with those who grieve the loss of a loved one. In the months and years ahead, there will be many ways that we will be asked to share in this special ministry and mission of caring for the well-being of what will now become "our" cemeteries.

Ascension of the Lord

Fr. Daniel
Viertel

Mt 28:16-20

"O' Lord it's hard to be humble..."

What should come to mind when we contemplate the mystery of the Ascension? What is it that we find in both Christ's descending – the incarnation – and his ascending – the ascension? It is humility.

In the Incarnation, God lowered Himself to take on our human nature, and a human body. And after His death, He descended into hell. Can you imagine a greater humility? Out of that humility He ascended to the very heights of heaven. His loving humility brought Him among us and that same humility took Him from us.

Christ has set a pattern for us to follow, calling us to a lifestyle of self-sacrifice without pride. The hope on this feast day is that we will be filled by the grace Christ gave us by his descending and ascending. With that grace may our lives be marked by humility: the realization that all virtues and abilities are not lodged in oneself, the sudden insight that every soul in this world can be your teacher no matter how low his light burns.

"Oh Lord, it's Hard To Be Humble (Mac Davis)..."

There is humility that comes from weakness and from the actions of others. We have experienced this kind of humility when we have been put down, mistreated, or abused, it is marked by remorse and despondency.

There is a second humility, divine blessedness, when the intellect senses the illumination of God's grace. The job of this humility is not to make us feel small, but to expand our capacity for appreciation, awe, delight—to stand silent before all that we do not know, and then to get on with the work of finding out.

Seek humility, the highest virtue of them all - not to be frustrated by our limitations, but to be filled with a new appreciation and an enhanced sense of awe and love for all our blessings.

Humility - who needs it? We do. - We all do.

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."
- Mt 28:19-20

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

What is the Ascension? Why has its celebration shifted from Thursday to the following Sunday?

The Ascension of Our Lord, which occurred 40 days after Jesus Christ rose from the dead on Easter Sunday, is the final act of our redemption that Christ began on Good Friday. On this day, the risen Christ, in the sight of His apostles, ascended bodily into Heaven (Luke 24:51; Mark 16:19; Acts 1:9-11).

The feast of the Ascension has traditionally been celebrated on Ascension Thursday. Since many people find it difficult to get to Mass on a workday, the feast has been moved to the following Sunday in most U.S. dioceses.

*God our Father,
 Make us joyful in the ascension of your Son Jesus Christ.*

*May we follow Him into the new creation,
 for His ascension is our glory and our hope.
 We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Each week we invite you to visit this space as we feature a group in our parish community that exemplifies our stewardship concepts of prayer, service & sharing.

Featured group: THE FINANCE COUNCIL

Type of Stewardship: As an advisory board, assist the parish leadership team in the wise stewardship of material gifts entrusted by God to the parish in support of the mission of the parish and broader Church.

Mission: Service

Contacts: Mr. Randall L. Miller, CPA, 920-684-2541, rmiller@habco.com
Deacon Robert Beehner, 920-684-3718, bob.beehner@sfamanitowoc.com

The Finance Council consists of the parish leadership team and parishioners with backgrounds in financial related areas such as human resources, banking, law, accounting, auditing, taxation, economic development, insurance and general business. The Finance Council meets on a monthly basis (with additional meetings on an as needed basis). The Finance Council serves in an advisory capacity to the Parish Leadership Team. The specific responsibility areas of the Finance Council include:

- Accounting System
- Budget Preparation
- Financial Reporting
- Internal Controls
- Fund-Raising and Management
- Property Management and Safekeeping
- Labor Practices

FELLOWSHIP SOCIALS

The Fellowship-Hospitality socials are held after the Sunday morning Masses. The next event will be:

June 5—Grand site

Join us for juice, donuts, coffee and conversation! All are welcome!

There is no agenda! Just friends and neighbors visiting in a warm and welcoming way!

St. Vincent de Paul Help Corner

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through His disciples...and now through us.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

Volunteer Help Needed...

Throughout the summer months, we will need volunteer assistance with painting, cleaning and moving items in the school buildings.

Would you be able to help?

If you are interested in helping, please complete this form. We will contact you with more information and dates as we finalize plans. Thank you.

PRAYER FOR GRADUATES

Heavenly Father,
You watched your own child grow
and pass each stage
on his way to adulthood.
When he accepted baptism,
You praised him, saying you were well pleased.
When he accepted his trials, you comforted
and raised him up.
Grant that those who finish this step
in their journey through life
will have the wisdom,
courage and grace of your Son.
And help me to show every day
how proud and well-pleased
I am of my own
beloved graduate.
